

Remote Learning Resources for Students

Senior Students (Years 11 and 12)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Curriculum content and assessment items will continue to be made available through OneNote developed by classroom teachers and administered by Heads of Department OneNote is a digital notebook that supports multi-user collaboration. It is part of Microsoft's Office 365 Education suite, which is free for students to access online at http://office.com
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students and staff are to communicate through their school-based Outlook email. Outlook 365 is web-based email and calendar service from Microsoft. Students can access Outlook through EQs Managed Internet Service: http://owa.eq.edu.au

Junior Students (Years 7, 8, 9, 10)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Learning@home refers to the way schools will maintain teaching and learning in the event of a prolonged school closure or student absence. Students in Years 7 – 10 will be provided with curriculum content relating to English, Maths and Science developed by the Department.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mathletics is an online maths platform for educators and learners containing a range of interactive activities, games and challenges. All students in Years 7 – 9 have been given access to this platform which can be accessed at: https://www.mathletics.com/au/
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> WordFlyers is an online literacy program designed to strengthen the literacy skills required for students to thrive in the secondary classroom. All students in Years 7 – 9 have been given access to this platform which can be accessed at: https://wordflyers.com.au/
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Curriculum content and assessment items will be made available through class OneNotes developed by Subject Area Coordinators OneNote is part of Microsoft's Office 365 Education suite, which is free for students, and can be accessed online at: http://office.com
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students and staff are to communicate through their school-based Outlook email. Students can access Outlook through Education Queensland's Managed Internet Service: http://owa.eq.edu.au
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> In the event that students do not have access to online learning during this time, the school will provide printed curriculum materials. These materials will be available for collection from Tuesday 3rd August. Please contact the school if you require printed curriculum materials.